Opening Auckland's Newest Conference Centre ...And Happy 18th Birthday Jet Park Hotel!

A few words from our Director, Liz Herrmann...

Time has just flown by and it's fantastic that we are celebrating our 18th year in business, which coincides with the opening of our new conference centre and 60 new guest rooms at our Auckland Hotel. We have grown in several stages, beginning with 90 rooms, adding a 45 room wing in 2004, then adding a further 45 room wing in 2008. Our new addition, by far our largest to date, includes 60 new guest rooms, plus Auckland's newest Conference Centre, catering for 250 people. The new development will include beautiful landscaped gardens, an outdoor deck overlooking a fully landscaped wetland. We have awesome views from our top floor lounge and bar- it's possible to see out to Rangitoto Island! Over the past few months we have been focussing on the interior design, and our Management Team are in the process of moving to complete each of their department's final tasks for our opening soon. We can't wait to show you our many new facilities, of which we are all very proud of. We hope that you will enjoy the personal and caring service that you have come to experience here at Jet Park Hotel in our new much enhanced and expanded areas, and public spaces. We warmly invite you to visit us over the coming months to experience our beautiful new facilities!

Introducing Hammond Cardon- New Hotel Manager to Jet Park Hotel Rotorua.

We are pleased to announce the appointment of Hammond Cardon as Hotel Manager to the Jet Park Hotel Rotorua team. Hammond is passionate about hospitality, having grown up with it 'in his blood' so to speak; "My family lived on site at Wairakei Resort when I was in high school because my mother was the Rooms Division Manager at the time. As always with hotels, you need extra staff from time to time, and I started working as a porter and kitchen hand. I really enjoyed the people and the opportunity it gave me to work and travel at the same time. I went to the UK for my O.E. and worked my way around the country at bars and hotels- 25 years later I'm still enjoying the industry!". One of Hammond's career highlights include working on the 'Lord of the Rings' events whilst at the Intercontinental Wellington; "...was a lot of fun and hard work, being able to develop my team to achieve results they didn't think they could has always been a great motivator for me." Being a 'local', Hammond is also passionate about what Rotorua has to offer, and may be seen with his family enjoying the lakes, mountain bike and walking tracks, and adventure activities that the area is known for. If you see Hammond around, do introduce yourself- he would love to meet you!
